

Interfaith Dialogue: Challenges and Opportunities in a Globalized World

Morgan Scott
PhD
University of Toronto
27 King's College Cir, Toronto, ON M5S, Canada

Avery Miller
Dr.
University of Sydney
Camperdown NSW 2006, Australia

Taylor Harris
Prof.
University of Cape Town
Rondebosch, Cape Town, 7700, South Africa

Abstract. This article explores the dynamics of interfaith dialogue in today's interconnected world, focusing on both the challenges and opportunities it presents. Through case studies and theoretical analysis, the study examines how religious communities engage with one another to promote mutual understanding and peace. The findings highlight the importance of dialogue in bridging cultural and religious divides, fostering cooperation, and addressing global issues such as conflict resolution and social justice.

Keywords: Interfaith Dialogue, Globalization, Conflict Resolution, Peacebuilding, Cultural Understanding

Introduction

Interfaith dialogue has become increasingly significant in our globalized world, where diverse religious communities often intersect. This article investigates the complexities and potential benefits of interfaith dialogue, drawing on examples from around the globe. The research explores how dialogue initiatives are structured and the factors contributing to their success or failure. By analyzing the role of dialogue in conflict resolution and peacebuilding, the study underscores its value in promoting harmony and understanding. The article also considers the challenges posed by cultural differences and political contexts.

This is a preliminary version. To read the full version of the article, please purchase a subscription.

References

1. Lee, G., Haga, K. Y., Park, Y. H., Yang, M., Kim, H. W., & Chung, J. K. (2024). A fruitful Christian lay man movement: A case study of University Bible Fellowship. Pharos Journal of Theology, 105(5).