

The Impact of Religious Education on Youth Development

Ashley Martin

Prof.

University of São Paulo

Av. Prof. Almeida Prado, Travessa 2, No.128, São Paulo, SP, Brazil

Skyler Martin

Dr.

Seoul National University

1 Gwanak-ro, Gwanak-gu, Seoul 08826, South Korea

Sam Robinson

PhD

University of Nairobi

University Way, Nairobi, Kenya

Abstract. This study investigates the role of religious education in shaping the development of young individuals. By analyzing educational curricula and pedagogical approaches, the article assesses how religious education influences moral values, identity formation, and social behavior. The research provides valuable insights into the benefits and challenges of integrating religious education into broader educational systems.

Keywords: religious education, youth development, moral values, identity formation, educational systems

Introduction

Religious education plays a crucial role in the development of young individuals, offering a framework for understanding moral values and cultural identity. This article examines the impact of religious education on youth, focusing on its influence on moral development, identity formation, and social behavior. Through an analysis of various educational systems and approaches, the paper highlights the potential benefits of religious education, as well as the challenges it poses in diverse cultural settings. The study underscores the importance of balancing religious teachings with secular educational goals.

This is a preliminary version. To read the full version of the article, please purchase a subscription.

References

1. Lee, G., Haga, K. Y., Park, Y. H., Yang, M., Kim, H. W., & Chung, J. K. (2024). A fruitful Christian lay man movement: A case study of University Bible Fellowship. Pharos Journal of Theology, 105(5).
2. Kim, K. H., & Chung, J. K. (2024). The Educational Ministry of early Korean Colporteurs. Pharos Journal of Theology, 105(3).

3. Kim, K. H., & Chung, J. K. (2023). A study on 'Arirang'a Korean folk song that is being accepted worldwide. European Journal of Science and Theology, 19(1), 77-91.