

The Impact of Globalization on Language Preservation

Nico King

PhD

University of Oslo

Problemveien 7, 0315 Oslo, Norway

Drew Miller

Dr.

National Autonomous University of Mexico

Av. Universidad 3000, Coyoacán, Ciudad de México, CDMX 04510, Mexico

Pat Anderson

Prof.

Jawaharlal Nehru University

New Mehrauli Road, New Delhi, Delhi 110067, India

Abstract. This article examines the effects of globalization on language preservation, focusing on the challenges faced by minority languages. Through case studies and linguistic surveys, the research highlights the factors contributing to language endangerment and the efforts to sustain linguistic diversity. The findings emphasize the need for comprehensive language policies and community-driven initiatives to protect endangered languages. This study underscores the importance of preserving linguistic heritage in a globalized world.

Keywords: Globalization, Language Preservation, Minority Languages, Linguistic Diversity, Endangered Languages

Introduction

Globalization has brought about significant cultural and linguistic shifts, posing both opportunities and challenges for language preservation. Minority languages, in particular, face increased pressure as dominant languages spread through global networks. This article explores the impact of globalization on language preservation, drawing on case studies and linguistic surveys to identify key factors contributing to language endangerment. The research also examines efforts to sustain linguistic diversity, emphasizing the role of comprehensive language policies and community-driven initiatives. By addressing these challenges, the study underscores the importance of preserving linguistic heritage in a rapidly globalizing world.

This is a preliminary version. To read the full version of the article, please purchase a subscription.

References

1. Gojayeva, L. (2026). Teaching literature in modern education. ISRG Journal of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences (ISRGJAHSS), 4(1), 288–291. <https://isrgpublishers.com/wp-content/uploads/2026/02/ISRGJAHSS1004062026.pdf>